I am 50+.
I face these issues.

I am sexually active

I think condoms are for younger people

I am told I do not need an HIV test

I am denied HIV treatment

I do not have savings to pay for my health

I am not treated well by health workers

I still have to look after my grandchildren

No one listens to my concerns

I am ignored by younger people

I worry about my safety

I fear being a burden

Source: UNAIDS